

Present Indefinite

A verb in the present tense shows an action that happens now. For the third person singular (he, she, it or singular noun), we add "s" or "es" to the first form of verb. But the plural noun and "I, we, they, you" take the first form of verb without "s" or "es".

Examples

- Alia and Ayesha do not play cricket.
 - The painter paint the chair.
 - He does not catch the fish.
 - We do not spoil the grass.
 - Does he convince him?
 - Do we play the flute?
 - Does he harvest the wheat?
